Project Work:

- Project Name: E-Pass Management System.
- Technologies Used: Java full Stack - Analytical Skills - Communication
- Project Description: As an Adhoc intern, I posses the work experience of how the organisation works. During my internship with the company, I learned new technologies like NetBeans and some skills like collaborative talent, creative thinking. I was able to put these skills in practice in E-Pass Management System projects. The work was challenging, and I learned about the work and gained more confidence in myself. It was a valuable experience.
